Your Flag and My Flag

By WILBUR D. NESBIT

YOUR Flag and my Flag! And oh, how much it holds—
Your land and my land—secure within its folds!
Your heart and my heart beat quicker at the sight,
Sun-kissed and wind-swept, red and blue and white.

The one Flag—the great Flag—the Flag for me and you—
Gleams all else beside—the red and white and blue.

YOUR Flag and my Flag! And how it flies today
In your land and my land and half a world away!
Revered and blood-red, the stripes forever gleam;
Sun-kissed and wind-swept—the good fellowship dream.

Blue and true blue, with stars to gleam bright—
The gleam of golden day; a shimmer through the night.

Your Flag and my Flag! To every ear and stripe
The drum beat at heart's base and flares shrilly pipe!
Your Flag and my Flag—a blessing in the sky;
Your hope and my hope—it never hid a lie!

Home land and far land and half the world around,
Old Glory bears our glad salute and ripples to the sound!

It is men like you who are more worthy to be trusted than those who toil up for poverty, none less inclined to take or touch aught which they have not honestly earned."—Abraham Lincoln.

Four thousand striking employees of the American Railway Express company at New York voted unanimously to return to work and leave the adjustment of their grievance to the committee, officials of the labor department of the railroad administration. The decision was reached after the strikers had listened to addresses by government representatives, officials of the American Federation of Labor and representatives of the company.

Frank Morrison, arbitrator in the wage dispute between Typographical union No. 6 and the Publishers' association of New York city, formally announced the award. The printers receive an increase of $9 a week, post-dated to April 1. That is all they asked for on the wage account. The weekly pay of an afternoon newspaper compositor now will be $43.50, and that of a morning newspaper compositor $46.50, on the basis of an eight-hour day, less 30 minutes for lunch.

A bill providing for a basic eight-hour day in Wisconsin in manufacturing establishments with time and a half pay for overtime was engrossed in the lower house by a vote of 51 to 41. The assembly also engrossed a bill allowing a reduction on income tax returns for property made useless by legislation or the end of the war. It is aimed to aid war industries and breweries. The senate passed a bill requiring boys up to eighteen to attend vocational schools 12 hours a week. The present limit is seventeen years and eight hours.

More than 1,000 men employed in the building trades industry of Gary, Ind., who have been on strike, returned to work and the threatened strike of 4,000 more has been averted as the result of an agreement reached between the unions and contractors.

The federal council of the Australian Workers' union has issued a manifesto to its members announcing that the council had unanimously rejected the scheme for the fusion of all labor organizations into one big union. The manifesto describes this as a "camouflaged L. W. U."

A resolution endorsing the proposed nationwide strike in behalf of Thomas J. Mooney was adopted by the Pacific Coast Metal Trades council, representing 250,000 ship yard and other metal trades workers, in convention.

Striking union men at Winnipeg, Man., decided not to return to work until all disputes pending by other trades are settled to the satisfaction of the men involved and the central strike committee, according to a statement made by Secretary Robertson of the labor council. More than 30,000 men and women left their employment, and Winnipeg was breadless.

CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR OF KNOXVILLE

CONGRATULATES THE WOMEN OF KNOXVILLE UPON
THEIR RIGHT TO VOTE IN THE COMING CITY
ELECTION AND APPEALS TO THEM FOR THEIR VOTE.

To The Women of Knoxville:—

I desire to congratulate you upon the Supreme Court decision rendered at Nashville on Saturday last, holding that the women of Tennessee have a right to vote in municipal and presidential elections. I can and do rejoice with you (as I have been for several years an advocate and supporter of woman's suffrage) in securing your political freedom, and most especially, in securing your right to participate in the selection of the next Mayor and Commissioners of the City of Knoxville, to be nominated on September 6th next, who shall control the affairs of this city for the next four years.

I am strongly convinced that an exercise of suffrage by the women of Knoxville means the selection of the very best

I am also strongly convinced that the mothers, as well as men to hold public offices; that they will look to the moral standing, character and reputation of candidates made in the community as well as their capabilities to fill the offices they seek. The tendency for good morals and good business methods will be no higher than that of the officials who compose the city government.

I favor a strict enforcement of all statutory laws and ordinances of the City for good government and such additional ordinances as are necessary to make a clean city and a first class business administration. No man should be elected as a city official who would disregard his oath of office or show favor to any lawless or undesirable element to gain political favor. I am not a politician but simply a business man seeking to serve all the people of Knoxville fairly, impartially, fearlessly and without favor to any, believing that Knoxville needs a strong, careful, clean administration of its public affairs. I believe that the splendid citizenry of Knoxville should be able to go abroad and say that there is nothing in the conduct of their city affairs of which they are ashamed.

The women generally of Knoxville, are deeply interested in our public schools and the freeing of the schools entirely from politics. The public school is the paladium and the hope of the great masses of the people where every mother's son or daughter can have an equal opportunity, regardless of their financial condition or station in life, to obtain a good education and fit themselves for good citizenship and the duties of life. I believe most strongly in freeing the public schools from politics. I believe most strongly in freeing the public schools from politics. I was strongly opposed to the bill introduced in the last legislature fostered by the present municipal administration, to abolish the school board of Knoxville and place under the direct control of the Mayor and Commissioner our public schools. I believe the people should rule and not any set of men.

When elected Mayor I shall strongly favor the selection of members of the School Board representing all sections of Greater Knoxville and men selected on account of their interest in the schools and their fitness for the position.

I also strongly favor and shall advocate the payment to our women teachers in our city schools the same salaries paid to men teachers for like services.

My position on Woman's Suffrage is not born of the moment. I have always stood for the elective franchise for women, believing that they are as capable of exercising this right as the men, and in this connection I will say that I have opposed as an individual the closing of our public halls and buildings to women who came to discuss these great and vital questions.

I also favor the very best sanitary and other favorable conditions for all women who work in our offices, stores, mills and factories, believing that the health and comfort of the women demand this.

In this connection I desire to urge just as strongly as I possibly can that every woman of Knoxville that believes in better government, register and equip herself to express her voice at the polls in the coming election. Your political freedom has arrived,—you have a new duty to perform. It is now incumbent upon you to express your preference in order that this great movement of woman's suffrage will not defeat the purpose for which it was intended,—that of elevating politics and the purity of the ballot and the selection of better men to public office.

I ask you to carefully investigate my character and record as a resident of this city for the past 25 years and if you believe in these principles for which I stand I earnestly solicit your influence and vote for my nomination as Mayor in the primary election to be held on Saturday, September 6th.

Respectfully,

E. W. NEAL.

AFFAIRS OF THE LABOR WORLD

Recent Important Happenings in All
Sections of This Country and Throughout Europe.

A thousand members of the Newark (N. J.) Laborers union went on strike in all parts of the city to enforce a demand for a 25 per cent wage increase. Simultaneously 1,500 bricklayers, carpenters and steam fitters employed on jobs with the laborers quit in sympathy. The laborers get 50 cents an hour and seek 62½ cents. Edward M. Waldron, head of the Newark General Contractors association, said the organization "flatly refused" to grant the demands, but that no effort would be made to employ non-union men.

The Australian Workers' union has asked the minister of railways to increase the railroad laborers' pay from $2.43 to $2.75 a day.

It has been discovered by an investigating board that some waitresses in Manitoba, Canada, have been working 80 hours a week.

The British ministry of munitions, through its training schools, has shown how successful women may be prepared for shop supervisors and forewomen.

The Metal Trades council of Toronto has addressed a letter to each Toronto member of parliament at Ottawa, appealing for an eight-hour day for all the workers in Canada.
